

University of Maryland University College

Maryland Environmental Footprint Higher Education Summit

- First LEED Certified Hotel in the United States
 - o Conference Center is now booking Green or LEED conferences
 - o Marriott has finally embraced Green operations
 - o Extensive recycling program in place
 - o Recently featured in a case study of High Performance Hospitality
 - o Numerous articles and T.V. spots

- Energy Performance Contract
 - o Replaced Energy Management system
 - o Completed a lighting retrofit
 - o Monitoring energy consumption
 - o Annual cost savings over $200,000
 - o Installation of boilers funded by cost savings

- ACUPCC Commitment
 - o Established policy for all new buildings to be LEED Silver
 - o Procure Energy Star certified products were available
 - o Carbon Footprint has been completed
 - (Center for Integrative Environmental Research)
 - o Climate Action Plan currently in progress

- New Academic Center
 - o Building will be Silver Certified
 - o Replaced major mechanical systems to achieve a 60% energy savings
 - o New lighting system
 - o Removing sprinkler system by using native landscaping
 - o Enhanced building commissioning

- Best Practices
 - o New Air Handler Units fitted with VFD and CO2 sensors
 - o Low VOC paints and finishes
 - o Recycling program (composting, single stream)
 - o Green cleaning products
 - o Linen reuse
 - o Green Seal Certification

George Trujillo: gtrujillo@umuc.edu